Our guest speaker then made a presentation regarding the gold Masonic pin discovered at old Camp Floyd. The Pin was discovered by (add name). Brother Saathoff arranged for the pin to be donated to Camp Floyd Historic Lodge. With permission of the doner, Brother Aaron and Past Grand Master Gerry Everett made arrangements for a plated copy of the pin to be produced. Sales of the pin would generate a donation to the Scottish Rite “Rite Care Foundation” for each pin sold. Brother Aaron published a report on the pin’s history, and had it bound. “History of Camp Floyd Historic Lodge No. 205 F.&A.M.”

November 18, 2023

Good morning my Brothers. I was asked to prepare a brief history of our Historic Lodge for today’s meeting. Like most Masonic Lodges, the history of Camp Floyd Historic Lodge No. 205 began long before the date our charter was issued.

During 2004, members of Wasatch Lodge No. 1, specifically Brother Michael Moon and Worshipful Master John C. Liley Jr., discussed conferring a Master Mason Degree at Camp Floyd State Park, the home of the first Lodge chartered in Utah Territory, Rocky Mountain Lodge No. 205. Members approved, and Brother Moon made arrangements with Camp Floyd State Park administration for use of the historic school building on the grounds.

Preparation was made, a candidate located and on 22 May 2004, the first Master Mason Degree at Camp Floyd State Park was conferred by members of Wasatch Lodge No. 1. Participants dressed in period clothing and used artifacts of the time period, Brother Carl A. Wager became the first Master Mason Raised on the grounds of Camp Floyd in nearly 143 years.

Wasatch Lodge No. 1 continued with this new annual tradition through 2008. That year Right Worshipful Brother John C Liley Jr., Right Worshipful Brother Lloyd E. Davis, and Brother Michael Moon discussed the possibility of forming a new type of Lodge, an Historic Lodge. After some diligent research, it was discovered that the Grand Lodge of Montana already had chartered an Historic Lodge during 2000. Bannack Historic Lodge No. 3-7-77 was created and chartered to preserve the history of Freemasonry in Montana and the Masonic Lodge building in Bannack. This Montana Historic Lodge became the perfect template to be used for the creation of Utah's own Historic Lodge.

During the One Hundred Thirty-Seventh Annual Communication (2009), legislation drafted by Right Worshipful Brother Robert Chapman, DGM, along with others, was proposed to allow for the creation of Historic Lodges in this jurisdiction. Chapter XIX, Historic Lodges, Sections 3-19-1 through 3-19-8 were approved and became part of the Utah Grand Lodge Code.

On May 23, 2009, with a gathering of over 50 Brothers from Utah and other states across the nation and in celebration of the sesquicentennial anniversary of Rocky Mountain No. 205 U.D. Grand Master Loyd E Davis granted a dispensation to Camp Floyd Historic Lodge U.D. The following officers were appointed:

WM	William C. Hall, PM	JD	Michael T. Moon
SW	John D. Patterson, PM	SS	William E. McCraw, PM
JW	Kevin A. Tucker, PM	JS	Gerald J. Everett, PM
Trea.	Lawrence K. Fielden, PM	Mar.	O. Gene May, PM
Sec.	Robert H. Heygster	Chap.	Charles E. Warren Sr., PM
SD	Drew C. Sanders, PM	Tyl.	Jason C. Varner, PM

In the preparation for submission of the request for a charter at the Grand Lodge communication on January 30, 2010, the officers conferred the necessary 3 Degrees for other Utah Lodges.

The balance of 2009 was used by the officers of Camp Floyd Historic Lodge, Under Dispensation. in planning for the eventuality of being chartered. Discussions focused on obtaining supplies consistent with pre-Civil War era issue. Fortunately, many of the officers and members were extremely knowledgeable about the history of the era and Camp Floyd in particular.

Most worshipful Grand Master, Lloyd E Davis, on May 23, 2010, opened in ample form at 5:25 PM an Occasional Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, for the purpose of constituting Camp Floyd Historic Lodge Under Dispensation. The communication was held in the Camp Floyd Schoolhouse and was attended by the Grand Lodge officers. About 50 Master Masons were in attendance with special out-of-town guests: Most Worshipful Brother Rocky Weaver, Grand Master of Missouri; Most Worshipful Brother Michael A. Sutton, Past Grand Master of Idaho; and Right Worshipful Brother Gary Deck, Deputy Grand Master of New Mexico.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master asked the Grand Secretary, Most Worshipful Brother Robert K McKenzie to read the Charter and then assembled and installed the following appointed officers of Camp Floyd Historic Lodge Under Dispensation.

WM	William C. Hall, PM	JD	Michael T. Moon
SW	John D. Patterson, PM	SS	William E. McCraw, PM
JW	Kevin A. Tucker, PM	JS	Gerald J. Everett, PM
Trea.	Lawrence K. Fielden, PM	Chap.	Charles E. Warren Sr., PM
Sec.	Robert H. Heygster	Tyl.	Jason C. Varner, PM
SD	Drew C. Sanders, PM

Over the following years, the Historic Lodge has met for the annual and other meetings at different Lodges throughout the state. Joint meetings have been held with Corrinne Lodge No. 5, Harmony Lodge No. 21 and Unity Lodge No 18.

In 2014, members built a website www.cfh1205.org including a page about Rocky Mountain Lodge No. 205 and a Facebook page for the Historic Lodge. Goodwin's 1934 publication is available on-line <http://www.cfh1205.org/pdf/Rocky-mountain-Lodge-205-search.pdd>

During 2017, the Grand Master decided that our Historic lodge was ineligible to be part of the new Grandview secretarial program, since then we have had to maintain our own membership list.

Earlier this year, the on-line program Constant Contact was used to create a mailing list and our first on-line newsletter was mailed to the brothers. 90 of our 129 members opened and read that first newsletter. It is hoped that use of this system and quarterly newsletters will spark a reinterest and increased participation among the members of our Historic lodge.

Thank you all for your indulgence this morning.
George F. Winters, Secretary and Historian
